1 interpretation and application of this article, the public policy of this 2 state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to 3 unemployment is declared hereby to be a serious menace to the health, 4 morale, and welfare of the people of this state and to the maintenance 5 of public order within this state. Protection against this great hazard of 6 our economic life can be provided in some measure by the required and 7 systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to 8 provide benefits to the unemployed during periods of unemployment 9 and by encouragement of desirable stable employment. The enactment 10 of this article to provide for payment of benefits to persons unemployed 11 through no fault of their own, to encourage stabilization in 12 employment, and to provide for integrated employment and training 13 services in support of state economic development programs, and to 14 provide maximum job training and employment opportunities for the 15 unemployed, underemployed, the economically disadvantaged, 16 dislocated workers, and others with substantial barriers to employment, 17 is, therefore, essential to public welfare; and the same is declared to be 18 a proper exercise of the police powers of the state. To further this 19 public policy, the state, through its department of workforce 20 development and unemployment insurance, will maintain close 21 coordination among all federal, state, and local agencies whose mission 22 affects the employment or employability of the unemployed and 23 underemployed.

1 shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week 2 of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period only if the 3 commissioner finds that with respect to such week:

4 (1) the individual is an "exhaustee" (as defined in 5 IC 22-4-2-34(i)); and

6 (2) the individual has satisfied the requirements of this article for 7 the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to extended 8 benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the 9 receipt of benefits.

10 (b) If an individual has been disqualified from receiving extended 11 benefits for failure to actively engage in seeking work under 12 IC 22-4-15-2(c), the ineligibility shall continue for the week in which 13 the failure occurs and until the individual earns remuneration in 14 employment equal to or exceeding the weekly benefit amount of the 15 individual's claim in each of four (4) weeks. For purposes of this 16 subsection, an individual shall be treated as actively engaged in seeking 17 work during any week if:

18 (1) the individual has engaged in a systematic and sustained effort 19 to obtain work during the week; and 20 (2) the individual provides tangible evidence to the department of 21 workforce development and unemployment insurance that the 22 individual has engaged in an effort to obtain work during the 23 week.

24 (c) For claims for extended benefits established after September 25, 25 1982, notwithstanding any other provision of this article, an individual 26 shall be eligible to receive extended benefits only if the individual's 27 insured wages in the base period with respect to which the individual 28 exhausted all rights to regular compensation were equal to or exceeded 29 one and one-half (1 1/2) times the individual's insured wages in that 30 calendar quarter of the base period in which the individual's insured 31 wages were the highest.

32 SECTION 45. IC 22-4-14-11 IS AMENDED TO READ AS 33 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 11. (a) For weeks of 34 unemployment occurring after October 1, 1983, benefits may be paid 35 to an individual on the basis of service performed in seasonal 36 employment (as defined in IC 22-4-8-4) only if the claim is filed within 37 the operating period of the seasonal employment. If the claim is filed 38 outside the operating period of the seasonal employment, benefits may 39 be paid on the basis of nonseasonal wages only.

40 (b) An employer shall file an application for a seasonal 41 determination (as defined by IC 22-4-7-3) with the department of 42 workforce development and unemployment insurance. A seasonal determination shall be made by the department within ninety (90) days after the filing of such an application. Until a seasonal determination by the department has been made in accordance with this section, no employer or worker may be considered seasonal.

(c) Any interested party may file an appeal regarding a seasonal determination within fifteen (15) calendar days after the determination by the department and obtain review of the determination in accordance with IC 22-4-32.

(d) Whenever an employer is determined to be a seasonal employer, the following provisions apply:

(1) The seasonal determination becomes effective the first day of the calendar quarter commencing after the date of the seasonal determination.

(2) The seasonal determination does not affect any benefit rights of seasonal workers with respect to employment before the effective date of the seasonal determination.

(e) If a seasonal employer, after the date of its seasonal determination, operates its business or its seasonal operation during a period or periods of twenty-six (26) weeks or more in a calendar year, the employer shall be determined by the department to have lost its seasonal status with respect to that business or operation effective at the end of the then current calendar quarter. The redetermination shall be reported in writing to the employer. Any interested party may file an appeal within fifteen (15) calendar days after the redetermination by the department and obtain review of the redetermination in accordance with IC 22-4-32.

(f) Seasonal employers shall keep account of wages paid to seasonal workers within the seasonal period as determined by the department and shall report these wages on a special seasonal quarterly report form provided by the department.

(g) The board shall adopt rules applicable to seasonal employers for determining their normal seasonal period or periods.

SECTION 46. IC 22-4-15-2 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 2. (a) With respect to benefit periods established on and after July 3, 1977, an individual is ineligible for waiting period or benefit rights, or extended benefit rights, if the department finds that, being totally, partially, or part-totally unemployed at the time when the work offer is effective or when the individual is directed to apply for work, the individual fails without good cause:

(1) to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the commissioner, the deputy, or an authorized representative of the department of workforce development and unemployment insurance or the United States training and employment service;

 (2) to accept, at any time after the individual is notified of a separation, suitable work when found for and offered to the individual by the commissioner, the deputy, or an authorized representative of the department of workforce development and unemployment insurance or the United States training and employment service, or an employment unit; or
 (3) to return to the individual's customary self-employment when directed by the commissioner or the deputy.

(b) With respect to benefit periods established on and after July 6, 1980, the ineligibility shall continue for the week in which the failure occurs and until the individual earns remuneration in employment equal to or exceeding the weekly benefit amount of the individual's claim in each of eight (8) weeks. If the qualification amount has not been earned at the expiration of an individual's benefit period, the unearned amount shall be carried forward to an extended benefit period or to the benefit period of a subsequent claim.

(c) With respect to extended benefit periods established on and after July 5, 1981, the ineligibility shall continue for the week in which the failure occurs and until the individual earns remuneration in employment equal to or exceeding the weekly benefit amount of the individual's claim in each of four (4) weeks.

(d) If an individual failed to apply for or accept suitable work as outlined in this section, the maximum benefit amount of the individual's current claim, as initially determined, shall be reduced by twenty-five percent (25%). If twenty-five percent (25%) of the maximum benefit amount is not an even dollar amount, the amount of such reduction shall be raised to the next higher even dollar amount. The maximum benefit amount of the individual's current claim may not be reduced by more than twenty-five percent (25%) during any benefit period or extended benefit period.

(e) In determining whether or not any such work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider:

- (1) the degree of risk involved to such individual's health, safety, and morals;
- (2) the individual's physical fitness and prior training and experience;
- (3) the individual's length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation; and
- (4) the distance of the available work from the individual's residence.

p
y

1 However, work under substantially the same terms and conditions
 2 under which the individual was employed by a base-period employer, 3 which is within the individual's prior training and experience and 4 physical capacity to perform, shall be considered to be suitable work 5 unless the claimant has made a bona fide change in residence which 6 makes such offered work unsuitable to the individual because of the 7 distance involved. For an individual who is subject to section 1(c)(8) 8 of this chapter, the determination of suitable work for the individual 9 must reasonably accommodate the individual's need to address the 10 physical, psychological, legal, and other effects of domestic or family 11 violence.

12 (f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, no work 13 shall be considered suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this 14 article to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new 15 work under any of the following conditions:

16 (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, 17 lockout, or other labor dispute.

18 (2) If the remuneration, hours, or other conditions of the work 19 offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those 20 prevailing for similar work in the locality.

21 (3) If as a condition of being employed the individual would be 22 required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from 23 joining a bona fide labor organization.

24 (4) If as a condition of being employed the individual would be 25 required to discontinue training into which the individual had 26 entered with the approval of the department.

27 (g) Notwithstanding subsection (e), with respect to extended benefit 28 periods established on and after July 5, 1981, "suitable work" means 29 any work which is within an individual's capabilities. However, if the 30 individual furnishes evidence satisfactory to the department that the 31 individual's prospects for obtaining work in the individual's customary 32 occupation within a reasonably short period are good, the determination 33 of whether any work is suitable work shall be made as provided in 34 subsection (e).

35 (h) With respect to extended benefit periods established on and after 36 July 5, 1981, no work shall be considered suitable and extended 37 benefits shall not be denied under this article to any otherwise eligible 38 individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following 39 conditions:

40 (1) If the gross average weekly remuneration payable to the 41 individual for the position would not exceed the sum of:

42 (A) the individual's average weekly benefit amount for the individual's benefit year; plus

(B) the amount (if any) of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits (as defined in Section 501(c)(17)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code) payable to the individual for such week.

(2) If the position was not offered to the individual in writing or was not listed with the department of workforce development and unemployment insurance.

(3) If such failure would not result in a denial of compensation under the provisions of this article to the extent that such provisions are not inconsistent with the applicable federal law.

(4) If the position pays wages less than the higher of:

(A) the minimum wage provided by 29 U.S.C. 206(a)(1) (The Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938), without regard to any exemption; or

(B) the state minimum wage (IC 22-2-2).

(i) The department of workforce development and unemployment insurance shall refer individuals eligible for extended benefits to any suitable work (as defined in subsection (g)) to which subsection (h) would not apply.

SECTION 47. IC 22-4-17-2, AS AMENDED BY P.L.108-2006, SECTION 29, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2009]: Sec. 2. (a) When an individual files an initial claim, the department shall promptly make a determination of the individual's status as an insured worker in a form prescribed by the department. A written notice of the determination of insured status shall be furnished to the individual promptly. Each such determination shall be based on and include a written statement showing the amount of wages paid to the individual for insured work by each employer during the individual's base period and shall include a finding as to whether such wages meet the requirements for the individual to be an insured worker, and, if so, the week ending date of the first week of the individual's benefit period, the individual's weekly benefit amount, and the maximum amount of benefits that may be paid to the individual for weeks of unemployment in the individual's benefit period. For the individual who is not insured, the notice shall include the reason for the determination. Unless the individual, within ten (10) days after such determination was mailed to the individual's last known address, or otherwise delivered to the individual, asks a hearing thereon before an administrative law judge, such determination shall be final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith.
